

CAMPAIGN: LEGAL COUNSELING FOR FOREIGNERS

SPECIAL EXPANSION OF COUNSELING FOR FOREIGNERS

15th June - 14th July, 2015

Sponsored by the Fukuoka Bar Association

June 20 of each year is World Refugee Day. This year, the regional Bar Associations across Japan are undertaking legal support activities for foreigners to commemorate “World Refugee Day”.

In recognition of “World Refugee Day”, the Fukuoka Bar Association is greatly expanding the scope of its free legal counseling for foreigners.

Ordinarily, the Fukuoka Bar Association offers free counseling in the afternoon (1300-1600) of the 2nd and 4th Fridays of each month, but during the Campaign Period for the month of June this year, free counseling will be available at any time. Counseling is not limited to immigration issues (status of stay, asylum application), but will also be available free of charge for divorce, inheritance, and various other legal questions.

Please use this special Campaign Period to receive counseling for any legal issue that has been troubling you.

CAMPAIGN PERIOD: 15TH JUNE (MON) TO 14TH JULY (TUE), 2015

How To Apply

① Please first call the dedicated reception number at 092-737-7555. ※
(Monday to Friday, 1000 – 1600)

② The attorney in charge will call you back at a later time to arrange for a mutually convenient time to meet.

③ Counseling will take place at the office of the attorney in charge.

(Depending on the situation, counseling may take place at the Tenjin Law Center.)

- ※ Please note that an application must be made in Japanese, except as follows:
